

Publisher Fuchs of The Star Heads So. Texas Press Ass'n.

Durwood L. Fuchs, publisher of The Giddings Star, is the new president of the South Texas Press Association.

Fuchs was elected to head the group at the 28th annual convention of the association held in San Antonio on Friday and Saturday, April 22 and 23.

He succeeds Wm. E. Berger of Hondo. New vice-president of the group is Forrest Salter of Kerrville. Other officers are Mrs. Geo. Belsey of Comfort, assistant to the president; Howell Jones of San Antonio, executive secretary; Mrs. Joyce Latham of Beeville, secretary; Alf B. Schroeter of Runge, treasurer; and Mrs. W. A. Salter of Kerrville, historian.

Elected to three-year terms as directors of the association were Bill Kenedy of Woodsboro; Carroll Keach of Robstown; and Edward P. Haby of Uvalde.

About 175 newspaper people from all over South Texas and numerous guests registered for the convention. They heard speakers from Mission, San Marcos, La Grange, San Antonio, Floresville, Austin, Lufkin, New Braunfels, Comfort, Hondo, McAllen, Newton, Iowa, and Chicago.

They witnessed the Battle of Flowers parade Friday afternoon, were guests of the Fiesta San Jacinto Association and the San Antonio Chamber of Commerce for a dinner Friday night, attended the Texas League baseball game between San Antonio and Houston Friday night.

Publisher Fuchs also was program chairman for the convention. He was accompanied to San Antonio by Walter A. Schulz, editor-manager of The Lexington Enterprise, and W. J. Sims of Bryan, a representative of L. S. Bosworth Co., paper suppliers of Houston.

DURWOOD L. FUCHS
Heads South Texas Press