

Three Injured In Auto Wreck

Three men were injured in an auto collision north of Giddings Sunday night near the home of Will Preuss on Highway 77.

John Somora of Giddings had a leg broken and Eulalia Gonzales Vega of Elgin, owner of the 1941 Buick suffered broken ribs.

B. H. Wiggins of Kingsville driving a 1952 Buick also had a leg broken in the collision. All three men were taken to the Lee Memorial Hospital, two in the Phillips and Luckey ambulance and the other in Sheriff Goodson's car who investigated the accident.

According to the officer's report Wiggins tried to avoid the other car from hitting him, however he could not get far enough out of their way.

The accident happened about 8:30 Sunday evening. Both cars were badly demolished.
