

The Giddings News

May 6, 1932

E. J. ("Red") Curtin writes from New York that he has been confined in the hospital for the past two months from an accident, and will be there one more month. George Harms is in the Marine Hospital, Ellis Island, New York.