

The Giddings News

November 28, 1924

HOME BURNED.

The home of Andy Hays who lives between Lexington and Tanglewood burned several days ago, the house and contents being a total loss. It is supposed that the fire caught from matches by rats. The house burned late in the evening while Mrs. Hays was milking and Andy was away from home at the time.