

The Giddings News

July 16, 1920

HILSBERG STORE

CHANGES HANDS

Mr. A. P. Hilsberg, who for 21 yrs. has been identified with Giddings business firms, being in the grocery business, sold out a few weeks ago which took effect the first of this week, to Messrs. Richard Hemple and Alvin Dunk, who will continue the business at the Hilsberg stand. Mr. Hilsberg has devoted 21 years years of undivided attention to his business and says he feels he wants a rest. By close attention and fair dealings with the public he has been a success in business and is now in position to enjoy a few weeks without having to look after some business.