

Iris Henderson Gets Award As 'Outstanding GHS Citizen'

Awards presentation to students at Giddings High School was made in a special program Monday morning, May 30.

Iris Henderson, valedictorian of the 1955 graduating class, was named "Outstanding Citizen of GHS" and received the trophy awarded annually by the Giddings Lions Club for this honor.

Receiving certificates as "Good Citizens" were Jimmie Herklotz, senior; Jack Weidemann and Sadie Mitschke, juniors; Maury Lee Crow and Lavine Jenke, sophomores; Fred Hannes and Lena Mae Frosch, freshmen.

Citizenship awards were presented on behalf of the Lions Club by Lions President-elect Emil G. Richter.

Thirty-four students at GHS received merit awards in the exercises and one of these received a special award. Merit awards served in that capacity until while on a fishing trip with band, choir, and other activities. Students getting 15 or more points during any one year receive merit awards that year. Students having 75 or more

(Continued on Page 8)

IRIS HENDERSON