

The Giddings News

November 9, 1923

Lee Co. Corn at Dallas Fair

P. J. Hill (colored) who lives toward Lincoln exhibited some corn at the Dallas Fair and was awarded third prize. The seasons were unfavorable the past year, but he continued plowing through the dry weather and made a fair crop. Lee County farmers are working themselves into front ranks in agriculture.