

The Giddings News

January 1, 1932

BANK CLOSED

Robert Miertschin and wife were here from Temple two days this week, visiting the former home town. Robert was scorched in the closing of the Temple State Bank which was closed a few weeks ago. D. F. Wade, formerly of Lexington had purchased a controlling interest when he left Lexington. Last January Chas. Seel left Giddings to accept a position in the bank, and John Hillsman was cashier, leaving the Lexington bank with Mr. Wade. John has moved back to Lexington and Mr. Wade has moved to South Texas. The bank will not be reorganized, for the present at least.