

The Giddings News

March 11, 1921

The little Hoppens boy returned home Tuesday afternoon from Austin where he has been under treatment of an eye specialist since receiving the injury of his eye last week while at school. It was thought at the time the accident occurred that the loss of the sight, and probably the removal of the eye ball of the injured eye would be the result, but fortunately the injury did not prove serious.