

The Giddings News

March 4, 1921

MAY LOSE EYS FROM ACCIDENT.

Monday during the noon hour at school, Ben Hoppins, while out playing with a number of other boys, was struck in the eye by a sharp pointed stick, which one of the other boys had thrown into the air. The little fellow was carried to Austin Wednesday morning by his father, C. A. Hoppens. It is thought that the removal of the injured eye ball will be the result.