HOME AT BLUE BURNS

The home of Ollie Hutson burned completely Wednesday at 1 o'clock. He and Mrs. Hutson were away from the house at the time, and his mother-in-law Mrs. O'Rear was there but was not able to save anything. The house was a 5-room dwelling. The fire started when some grease on the stove boiled over and set the linoleum on the floor afire and Mrs. O'Rear was not able to stop the blaze.
