

New Nutrena Plant Manager Arrives Here from Kansas

John Jackson and family of Coffeyville, Kansas, arrived in Giddings Sunday-night and have moved into the L. A. Cook residence, formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Wilks and sons.

Mr. Jackson assumed his duties as manager of the local Nutrena plant Monday morning.

Born in Barnsdell, Okla., in 1921, Mr. Jackson moved to Coffeyville at the age of 12. He finished high school in Coffeyville and attended Coffeyville Junior College where he finished a course in accounting. He has been with Nutrena for the past 13½ years, the entire time in Kansas where he was foreman of the terminal mill at Coffeyville.

Mrs. (Mary) Jackson is a native of Deering, Kansas, near Coffeyville. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson have three children, Jerry Dean age 8, Joleen Kay, age 6, and Bobby Dale age 4. Jerry Dean and Joleen Kay have enrolled in the Giddings Public School.

The Jacksons are affiliated with the Church of God.

Mr. Jackson served on the Coffeyville Safety Council for five years. He was with the armed forces from 1942 to 1945 and served 25 months in England.

Fred C. Ross, who had been manager of the local Nutrena plant since the purchase of the Fairmont Feed Mill, returned to Wichita Falls Monday morning as assistant superintendent of Nutrena's plant there, the position he held before coming to Giddings.
