

The Giddings News

May 20, 1932

SNAKE BITTEN

Gus. Jaehne was bitten by a copperhead snake Sunday afternoon while he was fishing on Rabb's Creek. He was walking along the bank and the snake struck him, biting him on the ankles and he took a big jump. He was rushed to town for medical attention. He was getting about Monday.