BURIAL ORGANIZATION TO BE ORGANIZED IN LEE COUNTY

G. M. Jakobik announces this week, that he will begin next week the organization of The Lee County Burial Association of which he will be Secretary-Treasurer.

W. H. Littlefield, of Anson, Texas, is the originator of the plan of this organization, which is rapidly spreading its operation over all the state, was here the first of this week.

Mr. Jakobik is a native son of Lee County, and has been in business here several years, and for the last three years has handled automobiles. His large acquaintance over the county should be of great assistance in getting this much needed organization under way.

We call your attention to his announcement and advertisement in this issue, which gives full information concerning the benefits of the association.
