

The Giddings News

July 17, 1931

CAR AND TRAIN COLLIDED

Emil Janssen's automobile and a freight train collided Wednesday morning at the oil mill crossing. He is working on Richard Hempel's new residence and had a stick of timber, a 2x4, on his car. The train was switching and his car was struck and dragged a distance, breaking the timber, but not injuring the automobile or the driver.