

The Giddings News

June 24, 1932

SHERIFF MAKES RAID NEAR WEIMAR

Sheriff Wm. Loessin made a raid about two miles north of Weimar in Fayette County on a man's place named Jourgens, where he found a big bunch making Whoopee. In fact about 20 cars of men, women, boys and girls were consuming ice cold beer. The Sheriff captured some 40 cases of beer and three hundred pounds of ice, which indicated they had prepared for a big crowd. The names of the people present were taken down by the Sheriff but will not be released for publication. Schulenburg Sticker.