

The Giddings News

July 4, 1913

Hand Broken.

Carl Kaiser had the misfortune of getting his hand broke Monday morning. Carl was turning a cow from the pen, she was near the gate which was fastened at the bottom, he stooped down to open the gate and the cow kicked him on the hand with the above result.