

The Giddings Star, March 16, 1950

Carlie Kalbas and two of his cousins were seriously injured Saturday afternoon in Giddings on the street when control of the truck in which they were riding was lost and it careened into a tree. All had to be hospitalized.