CORN PULLING CHAMPION

Henry Kaminiski was declared the champion corn puller at the Granger Corn Festival last week when hundreds of persons witnessed the contest in a cornfield near that place. He pulled 332 lbs. of corn in 15 minutes. The second place man pulled 329 lbs. and the next man 327 lbs. This year's champion was also champion for 1940. The second place man this year was first place in 1939. There were many entries from over the state.
