

The Giddings News

August 22, 1924

What a Difference

Chas. Kappler, a young industrious farmer sold a bale of cotton Tuesday for $172.46, and the seed for $18.55, making a total of $191.01. Twenty-five years ago it would have required seven bales of cotton and seed to bring that amount.