

The Giddings News

November 3, 1922

The many friends of Gerhard Kappler are glad to learn that he successfully underwent an operation early Monday morning for appendicitis. The operation had been delayed until he had reached almost a serious condition, but he is now out of danger.