

The Giddings Star

April 26, 1940

Collision on Main Street

Mr. Walter Kappler, returning from work Monday night and a Highway Department truck driving toward town had a collision at the intersection of North Main and West Brenham street. Mr. Kappler's truck was overturned and he was partly covered up by the truck.

He was rushed to Dr. Mantzel's office where it was found that he was considerably bruised but not seriously injured.