

The Giddings News

August 8, 1924

Cattle Died

August Karcher of Dime Box lost about thirty head of cattle recently due to what he thinks was tick fever. The cattle had not been accustomed to ticks and they were placed in a pasture where there were ticks and they got on the cattle.