

Lydia Kasper of Giddings celebrates 100th birthday

Mrs. Lydia Kasper of Giddings celebrated her 100th birthday on Nov. 2 at Hennesey Nursing Home. Members of her family were on hand for the celebration.

Mrs. Kasper was married to the late Adolph Kasper on Aug. 9, 1903.

Mrs. Kasper was born Nov. 2, 1885 in Lincoln. She was the daughter of Edward and Marie Kubitz Czimskey.

Her family is a very large one, See KASPER, page 10 with 10 children, 33 grandchildren, 77 great grandchildren and 37 great great grandchildren.

Her children say that she has a fine memory and has been able to recall many instances of her youth.

While her husband was alive the family lived in Lincoln, but after he died she moved to Giddings. She lived in a trailer home next to her son Paul Kasper for many years, and moved into Hennesey Nursing Home in 1977.

Mrs. Kasper is a member of the Loebau Lutheran Church.
