

The Giddings News

November 21, 1924

INSPECTION.

Mr. G. E. Kelly has the depots and other railway property in the best of condition ready for the annual inspection by the officials of the Southern Pacific Lines. The party passed through Giddings Thursday morning and will inspect the property on their return trip. Inspections are good for railroads, they would also be good for towns and private property.