

The Giddings News

May 20, 1932

Paul Kessel of Serbin was in Wednesday paying for two years' reading of the News. He says he is living on the fat of the land and does not figure on missing any meals soon. Good garden, plenty of smoked meat and canned goods insure his eating for some time yet.