

M. F. Kieke On Grievance Committee

Austin, Texas, July 14 — 1953
(Special) — State Bar President Everett L. Looney has announced the appointment of several lawyers of the 10th Congressional District as members of district grievance committees of the State Bar of Texas.

Purpose of the committees, as explained by Looney, is to investigate alleged cases of professional misconduct and establish better understanding between clients and attorneys. Aggrieved clients may make complaints against lawyers and be assured of a fair and impartial hearing. Appropriate disciplinary action will be taken against erring members of the legal profession, the Bar president indicated.

Committeemen named by Looney include:

District 10-A: (Blanco, Burnet, Hays and Williamson Counties)

Edmond D. Harrison, Blanco

Bryce A. Taylor, Burnet

Kirby Vance, Taylor

Henry C. Kyle, San Marcos

W. K. McClain, Georgetown

District 10-B: (Travis County)

Charles F. Herring, Austin

Robert L. Burns, Austin

Gibson R. Randle, Austin

Fagan Dickson, Austin

Frank C. Erwin Jr., Austin

District 10-C: (Bastrop, Burleson, Caldwell, Lee and Washington Counties)

W. M. Fielder, Lockhart

M. F. Kieke, Giddings

Lee W. Gray, Caldwell

C. B. Maynard, Bastrop

Albert Stone, Jr., Brehman

Albert M. Walker, State Bar director for the '0 District, will serve as an ex-officio member of the grievance group. Complaints against attorneys should be reduced to writing and forwarded to Walker or to State Bar of Texas, Austin 15, Texas, for action, president Pooney stated.
