

The Giddings News

November 13, 1942

HARVEST DAY FESTIVAL

The coronation of Miss Elberta Kieschnick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kieschnick and a member of the 4-H club of Lincoln climaxed the ceremonies of Harvest Day Festival, Thursday of last week. The hall was appropriately decorated with the peanut theme dominating. The King of the Court of Goober, Alton Kunze, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Kunze of Lincoln, crowned the queen who had been awarded first place in a costume trimmed with peanuts. Her train bearers were Miriam Tate and Nancy Bolsins and the crownbearer was Charles Schultz. The two princesses were Miss Frances Jatzlau of the Fedor 4-H club and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jatzlau, and her escort was Clarence Becker, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Becker. Miss Margaret Nerger of the Giddings Homemaking Club and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nerger, whose escort was Bob Fariss, a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Fariss. The prizes for these ladies were $10, $7.50, and $5.00.

The Duchesses were: Miss Myrtle Kipp of the Giddings High School 4-H Club, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kipp of Concord and her escort was Franklin Domann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Domann of Fedor; Miss Carrie Bell Nettles, of the Lexington High 4-H club, and her escort Jean Karcher; Miss Mildred Kessel of the Serbin 4-H club and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Kessel, and her escort was Calvin Namken, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Namken; Miss Dorothy Ann York of the Giddings Girl Scouts and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton York and her escort was Myron Mueller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mueller; Miss Molly Ann Miller of the Giddings Grammar School 4-H club, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Miller. These young ladies were dressed with pretty designs of peanuts, and each received $2.50. All prizes were paid in war saving stamps.

A male quartet, a Baptist sextette and trio sang lively and patriotic songs. The motive of the young ladies' dresses was mostly Victory emblems. The ladies were judged for design of garment, posture and presentation.