ERNEST KIESCHNICK ELECTED SUPERVISOR

Ernest Kieschnick, landowner living near Manheim, was elected Supervisor for Sub-Division No. 1 of the Lee-Burleson County Soil Conservation District, at a meeting of landowners at the Court House Saturday and will serve as Supervisor for the district for a term of three years.

At similar meetings in Burleson County, two Supervisors were elected thus completing the formation of the Lee-Burleson County Soil Conservation District.

These supervisors and representatives from other governmental agencies will meet with the State Soil Conservation Board at Kenedy Feb. 27 at 10 A. M. for the purpose of becoming more familiar with the functions of the soil conservation district.
