

The Giddings Star

May 5, 1955

TO OPEN FEED STORE

Herbert Kieschnick, who has been employed at the Fairmont Feed Mill for the past 16 years, has resigned effective after this week to establish his own feed business.

Mr. Kieschnick will soon open his Uncle Johnny Feed Store in the railroad warehouse next to Gulf Motor Co.

Watch for his announcement in this newspaper.

HERBERT KIESCHNICK'S new feed and supply business located in the S.A. & A. P. freight depot is now open to serve the needs of farmers in this area. Mr. Kieschnick says his formal opening will be held on May 21 but that he is open for business at this time, offering a full line of Uncle Johnny's feeds, fertilizers, seeds, feeder equipment, remedies, etc. He also buys eggs and poultry. —Star Polaroid 1-Minute Photo