

Accepts Appointment As Life Insurance Representative

E. C. Knippa, Giddings, Texas accepted an appointment as a life insurance representative of the Aid Association for Lutherans in the E. H. Hellbusch agency of Houston.

Mr. Knippa's previous education and recent training in life insurance counseling qualifies him to give efficient service regarding a person's life insurance needs. Mr. Knippa's territory will include Lutheran churches of the Synodical Conference in the counties of Washington, Lee, Burleson, Bastrop, Falls and Fayette.

Aid Association members in this territory are urged to direct their requests for service to Mr. E. C. Knippa.

The Aid Association for Lutherans, Home Office at Appleton, Wisconsin, is one of America's largest legal reserve fraternal life insurance societies, having over 670 million dollars of life insurance in force, and having paid over 69 million dollars in benefits to members and beneficiaries since organization in 1902.
