

Birthday Dinner

Miss Helen Knox honored her double aunt Mrs. Fannie (Robert) Knox Saturday with a dinner at the home of Miss Knox's parents Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Knox, the occasion being the 62nd birthday of Mrs. Knox. Only the nearest relatives were present who were Mr. and Mrs. Mason Williams of San Antonio, Miss Fannie McLaran of Waco, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Tipton of Dime Box, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Knox and Mr. and Mrs. John Knox, Mrs. Monroe and little Miss Josephine Knox of Giddings.

The meal was served in courses and was the most bounteous, the editor has not been able to ascertain from any guest the menu because each participant was too busy enjoying the gustatory delights to give an exact account of the serving. The day was enjoyably spent by other relatives coming during the afternoon and making it an occasion of wishing Mrs. Knox many more birthdays.

Mrs. Knox is one of the oldest settlers and belongs to one of the most prominent families who ever lived in this part of Texas. She is as widely known as is any person who ever resided in this section. Having reared a large family of her own and then assuming the responsibility of rearing a family of orphans, and steadfastly exemplifying industry, thrift and a Christian spirit, she was an ardent worker for community betterment. Her home was always radiant with that true Southern hospitality that made any worthy person welcome, whether known or unknown, and her influence in bygone days and in the days to come is limited only by the number of those who were so fortunate to come into her benign presence.

The editor joins her innumerable friends in wishing her many more birthdays and years of usefulness.
