

The Giddings News

May 20, 1932

Frank Knox is seriously sick from a breakdown at his home in Brady. He has been in a coma for several days and was not reported any better by his brother John. Lawrence Knox is there with his brother.