

The Giddings News

December 21, 1923

Kurt Koehler has moved to his farm near town and is busy building and repairing fences, houses, etc. He says he will not plant much cotton next year, but will plant considerable feed stuff and grain, which is a mighty good idea. Nobody knows how long 35 cent cotton will continue; corn, fat hogs and work stock are always useful.