

The Giddings Star, March 9, 1950

Mr. Carl Krause had to submit to a second amputation of his other leg Wednesday of the past week. He is yet a very sick man at this writing, however doing as well as can be expected after such a major operation.