

The Giddings Star
December 24, 1943

A Mild Scare

Tommy Krenak, son of Henry Krenak, caused quite a bit of a scare when he disappeared from the yard of Mr. Lewis Krenak, where he was playing with his cousin, Arnold Urbanovsky. A large number of Dime Box people volunteered their services in organizing a searching party. However, young Krenak, about two years of age, appeared in the vicinity of the Grundmann home, which is about one mile from where he "took off." Naturally everyone was very much relieved when he was found.