

The Giddings News

January 13, 1922

Alex Krueger and family of Houston were up for the holidays visiting their numerous relatives. Alex is in the ticket office at the Central Depot at Houston and has a good job, but he says that he has a longing for the farm life. "You can't take the country out of a boy."