

The Giddings News

February 9, 1923

Herman Kutschka and family were among the early ones in town Tuesday to see the farm train, after having marketed 43 dozen eggs that morning. His last sale was Wednesday of last week. Mrs. Kutschke says that their chickens are averaging 35 dozen a week these days.