

The Giddings News

June 26, 1931

COUNTRY HOME BURNS

The Frank Laake country home near Paige, known as the former Foerster place, burned at 6 a. m. Wednesday. The house and contents were a complete loss. The fire was first discovered in a closet but its origin is not known. Lack of water prevented saving the building. This is the second country home near Paige to burn down recently.