Henry G. Lehman Is Candidate for Re-election to Office

Henry G. Lehman of Giddings this week authorized The News to announce his candidacy for re-election to the office of Floridian Representative, 65th District, composed of Milam, Burleson, and Lee Counties, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries.

Henry G. Lehman is well known throughout this district and is recognized as a hard worker, as well as one of the outstanding lawmakers, due to his experience and leadership. He has been honored with appointments of chairman and vice-chairmanships, as well as a member of some of the most important committees in the House of Representatives. If re-elected he will have the honor of becoming Dean of the House of Representatives, having served consecutively longer than any other member in the body. In making his announcement he said:

"I am indeed grateful to the people of Lee County for the consideration they have given me and for allowing me the honor of serving them in this capacity. Words cannot express my feeling of appreciation and gratitude for the loyal vote and support Lee County has given me, and in return I have been
