The Giddings News

May 23, 1924

Herman Lehmann who is employed at the Peter Produce Co. happened to stick an indelible pencil point into his thumb, the point breaking off and remaining in there. His thumb became poisoned from the lead.