

The Giddings News

August 11, 1922

A Little Excitement

A little excitement was caused Monday morning when Ed. Lewis (colored) escaped from the jail. He had been adjudged a lunatic and made a dash when his breakfast was brought to him. He made a dash at Sheriff Carlisle and also ran down main street where he was caught and taken to jail. The state asylum is crowded and no more can be accommodated, hence the necessity of keeping him in jail here.