

The Giddings News

January 1, 1932

The male choir of the Imm. Lutheran church visited Henry Liepke Sunday night and spent two hours singing songs which cheered him considerably. Hy. has been confined to his bed the past ten years or so, an invalid, and he appreciates visits from his friends, especially on such occasions as this when he can see some of the brighter side of life.