

The Giddings News

November 9, 1923

Pastors Change

Rev. Makowsky pastor of the German Methodist church at Lexington was in Giddings Monday and advised the editor that he will soon move to a new charge. He has been in Lexington 7 years and is a very popular pastor as well as a man and citizen. His successor is Rev. Doerr of Rosenberg who is personally known to the editor as another high class gentleman and who will be well received by the Lexington people. Rev. Doerr's daughter was one of the champion declaimers of the Houston district, having won the county and the district championship two years ago. The editor bespeaks for Rev. Doerr a pleasant stay in Lee County, as well as wishing Rev. Makowsky the best of good wishes for his future.