

The Giddings News

November 23, 1923

Serious Accident

Carl Marburger, age 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Margur-ger who live near Palge fell out of a pecan tree Tuesday and broke both arms. In one arm there was a double fracture, both bones having been broken. He and some others were gathering pecans near Lincoln where his father formerly lived and he fell from a dangerous height, possibly 20 or 30 feet. He was brought to Lincoln by Knox Williams who happened to be passing in his auto, and prompt medical attention was given. He is doing well at present.