

The Giddings News

March 10, 1950

W. E. Marburger Asks
Re-Election to Office of County Clerk

To the People of Lee County:

I wish to announce my candidacy for re-election to the office of County Clerk, subject to your wishes at the polls in the coming primary election in July.

The County Clerk's office is an office of service. Citizens from every walk of life will, during the course of their lives, require the service of this office. The property rights and professional interests of professional men, business and laymen depend upon the manner in which this office performs its duties—from the cradle to the grave. After that, the probating of Wills, Administration of Estates, Guardianship of minors also are filed, processed and recorded in this office.

See MARBURGER, page 8

Marburger -- --

(Continued)

It is a clearing house, so, to speak, of legal matters pertaining to the property rights, succession and vital statistics of the citizens of any county in Texas.

The writer has applied himself earnestly and whole-heartedly to this task, is familiar with every phase of it and feels that the experience gained in the past will enable him to render better service in the future.

Your support and cooperation in the past has not been lacking, I earnestly wish everyone to know that this is highly appreciated. If you, by your vote, should see fit to return me to the duties of this office, you may rest assured that I shall strive to the utmost of my ability to render proper and commensurate service. Thank you.

Sincerely,

W. E. Marburger,