A PRAYER

As we meet on this Reunion Day
All thanks O Lord, we give to Thee Through his goodness again we may

Be gathered here as a large family
As we remember our forefathers who came From distant shores to this land of liberty.

With grateful hearts we who remain, Give thanks this day, O Lord, to Thee.

As we think of the blessings thou didst give

To John and Louise Marburger long ago,

And that this day their eight children still live.

All thanks O Lord to Thee we owe
As these children founded homes to,

Thou again blessed bountifully

Now as we meet this day anew

All thanks O Lord be to Thee.

Thou hast been ever near

To give help to body and soul.

Even when death came to loved ones dear,

Thou wast there to console.

Today we remember the departed in loving memory.

And for the mercy and grace given while they did live

Our hearts are raised to Thee,
And all thanks O Lord, to Thee
we give.

As today we meet each other with a smile

And enjoy each others company,

We know that it's only a little while,

And in death we shall be called by Thee.

Through Jesus we ask for grace
so to live,

That when our days on earth are past,

Forever thanks to Thee, O Lord,
we give

In reunion in heaven at last.

The Marburger Reunion wishes to express its thanks to the Lee County Fair Association and the Firemen for the use of its localities.
