

Holds Reunion Sat.

The heirs of D. S. McCarty, who served as S. P. agent for about 40 years at McDade and who was the younger brother of the late Mrs. W. E. Black (Jane McCarty) enjoyed a family reunion at the home of Gordon McCarty at Yoakum, Saturday June 4th.

Relatives started arriving Friday and some stayed until Sunday. Grandmother Nettie McCarty found herself surrounded by all of her children, grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Each guest came bearing a covered dish and noon luncheon and supper that night was enjoyed out on the spacious lawn of the McCarty home.

The menu consisted of turkey and dressing, baked and fried chicken, salad, vegetables, relishes, iced tea, soft drinks and cakes.

On this occasion there were six cousins present whom some of the family had not seen in over thirty years and everyone was able to attend with the exception of three members of the McCarty family, they being Pamela McCarty, daughter of honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Miley McCarty of California; Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Rech and daughter of Charleston Heights, South Carolina.

Those present, in addition to the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McCarty, were: Mrs. Nettie McCarty, Mrs. Thelma Weidlein, Mr. T. M. McCarty, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clyde McCarty and Roxanne and Robin, all of Austin; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert V. Reid Sr. of Lockhart; Mr. and Mrs. Reid McCarty and daughter Marsha and son David of Point Comfort; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McCarty and daughter Claudia Ann and Kathy of Beeville; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McCarty and daughter Marla of Karnes City, Mr. and Mrs. Miley McCarty of the U. S. Navy; Mr. and Mrs. L. U. Rowntree of Fredericksburg; Mrs. W. M. Pinchard of Houston; Mrs. Hubert Burns and sons, Billy and Bobby of Caldwell; Mrs. Effie Jane Brewer and Mrs. Mettie B. Collier of San Antonio; Miss Bess A. Black and Mrs. Mabry B. Knox of Giddings; and Mr. and Mrs. Emory Black of Ledbetter.
