

The Giddings News

October 27, 1922

Prof. I. G. McGee has received word that his son Milton has been given a student assistantship in Zoology in Baylor University which is an honor as well as a means of helping out in expenses while attending college.