

The Giddings News

January 20, 1922

Herman Meissner is not improving rapidly from his accident caused by his team running and throwing him from a load of wood. His collar bone has about healed, but his knee is still infirm.